

An inspiring journey of a decade comes to an end in Aug 2014, making way for new beginnings. Navitus Pvt Ltd is now dormant.

All parties involved are pursuing their respective dreams through different vehicles. As a result, the learning and development industry has more players who will continue to strengthen the value adding work of developing the human factor in organizations in Pakistan and abroad.

I continue working in the L&D industry as part of the unstoppable and meaningful agenda of positive change that commenced in with KZR in 1991.
